A Word from Father Brandon

This weekend we celebrate our Nation's 250th Birthday with this July 4th celebration weekend! What existed in 1776 and does not today, or those that began to exist after 1776 and yet still do not exist today is staggering if you are willing to make a list! In terms of human history, 250 years is a blip on the radar, barely a hashmark on the timeline of human history (that is, if you are not a young earther!) Though it is barely a dot in history, there is no denying of just how deep and profound the impact has been on the history of the world forever more because of Her birth back in 1776.

I find it remarkably sad and frustrating how the idea of America and what it is She stands for has become so saturated in the insane politics of our age! People are so charged and so on edge with their political ideologies that the fact that we live in a beautiful and free and privileged place and in a period of time unmatched in all of human history is unfortunately lost and missed on so many! Patriotic themes and reverence for the nation has become things that people mock or call conservative or whatever…it's really sad the state our nation finds Herself…well, Her citizens - She is still remarkably stunning and beautiful! Though our land, our laws, our history, our institutions, our shared desires for Goodness are all intact (though many will tell you it's not), there is undoubtable blindness and numbness towards that from Her citizens. We all know it, we all see it, you don't need me telling you!

One of the most formative things about my life growing up was being in The Boy Scouts. I am an Eagle Scout. One of the beautiful things about Scouting was that there is an inseparable union between the reverence towards God a Scout engenders and his patriotism and awe he inhabits towards his country and flag. Citizenship and Religion are undeniable foundations of Scouting and it's not instilled in you as a conservative flavor or a liberal hue; it is not given to you as something optional or that you only do in terms of politics! That is where the citizens of our beloved America have gone awry - we've somehow collectively signed up for the arranged marriage of politics and religion, of politics and patriotism. Religion is not political. Patriotism is not political. They have been co-opted: these intuitive and innate aspects of our lives, for the sake of power and control! Resist! Reverence towards both God and Country is not something only some do or are invited to. Rather, because we are Americans and children of the living God, these things are who we are! May we not be ashamed or self-aware or afraid to just be holy Americans. That means that we don't hide behind slogans, talking points, merchandise, faux-tough guy attitudes, cheesy country songs, or manufactured outrage! No! It's not a performance! Let us, in our own lives, recommit ourselves to the ideals of this great experiment our Founders sought to initiate. Let us recommit ourselves to the freedoms we have and use them for the good of humanity and the proclamation of the Gospel. Let us recommit ourselves, this birthday weekend of our Nation, to restoring something that feels lost or robbed - that simplicity and that beauty that seems to be strangled by the might and noise of those who seek to use it - and us - for their own power and profits. America isn't some utopia, but it is something that, if we let it, calls out the best of what fallen humanity can be in this fallen world. Let us pray for our leaders that their patriotism may be pure and their faith may be the bedrock of their lives.

Love,

Fr Brandon

KEYS: In Christian art, crossed keys, sometimes known as the Keys of Heaven, are a pair of keys that overlap and interlock, creating an "X." The crossed keys represent the keys that Jesus promised to St. Peter, empowering him to take binding actions in leading the institution of the Catholic Church. In short, they are a symbol of the Pope's authority. In the gospel of Matthew, Jesus says to Peter: I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on Earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on Earth shall be loosed in heaven. St. Peter was the first pope, and those who succeed him share in the power Jesus gave him. The keys are depicted in gleaming hues of gold and silver, signifying the power to unlock the gates of heaven.

Please feel free to bring a lawn chair and any yard games you wish to play. Please sign up on the sheet in the back of church by July 20. There will be some changes to the picnic this year, including no mass, to keep it simple and focus on enjoying a good meal together and fellowship. Please join your fellow parishioners for some good food and conversation.

The 31st Annual Fryburg K of C Sporting raffle was another successful event. Even though this year's event didn't financially do as well as previous years, we still managed to profit around $26-27,000. There are many people to thank and I cannot list them individually because I would hate to forget someone. I would like to thank all my Brother Knights and their families for promoting the raffle and by volunteering. I'd like to thank the Rosary Society and all the people who worked so hard to prepare the awesome dinner for the day of the raffle. And I would like to thank everyone who supported and attended our raffle. This is our only fundraiser and a majority of this money will stay in the local community. To see a winner's list from this year's raffle, please visit www.watch4deercatholic.church and click on the K of C tab. Thanks again, Matt Gilara Sporting Raffle Committee
