To my Parish Families and all visitors with us this weekend,

We are days from the Election. Many people I've spoken to are disgusted and have decided not to vote. I believe voting is a civic duty and if you are one still discerning whether to vote or not, it always helps me as a Catholic to look at the seven principals of Catholic Social Teaching.

Each of these principals builds upon each other to build a just society, beginning with an understanding that every "human life is sacred" and finally understanding that "care for the earth is not just an Earth Day slogan, it is a requirement of our faith."

When I go to cast my vote, I am not voting for a savior (Jesus is Lord), I am voting for a person, an imperfect person, and I understand that.

Seven Principles of Catholic Social Teaching

The Church's Seven Principles of Catholic Social Teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society.

Life and Dignity of the Human Person

The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred, and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. This belief is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching. In our society, human life is under direct attack from abortion and euthanasia. The value of human life is being threatened by cloning, embryonic stem cell research, and the use of the death penalty. The intentional targeting of civilians in war or terrorist attacks is always wrong. Catholic teaching also calls on us to work to avoid war. Nations must protect the right to life by finding increasingly effective ways to prevent conflicts and resolve them by peaceful means. We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person.

Call to Family, Community, and Participation

The person is not only sacred but also social. How we organize our society -- in economics and politics, in law and policy -- directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community. Marriage and the family are the central social institutions that must be supported and strengthened, not undermined.

Rights and Responsibilities

The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency.

Option for the Poor and Vulnerable

A basic moral test is how our most vulnerable members are faring. In a society marred by deepening divisions between rich and poor, our tradition recalls the story of the Last Judgment (Mt 25:31-46) and instructs us to put the needs of the poor and vulnerable first.

The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected--the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to the organization and joining of unions, to private property, and to economic initiative.

Solidarity

We are one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are our brothers and sisters keepers, wherever they may be. Loving our neighbor has global dimensions in a shrinking world. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace.

Care for God's Creation

We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of creation. Care for the earth is not just an Earth Day slogan, it is a requirement of our faith. We are called to protect people and the planet, living our faith in relationship with all of God's creation.

Let us pray for each other and pray for our nation!

Have a great week!

Fr. Mike

Corporal Works of Mercy

Corporal means— of, relating to, or affecting the body. Corporal works of mercy complement the spiritual works of mercy. The corporal works of mercy are charitable deeds to help other people with their physical needs including: food, drink, clothing and shelter. From the Principal...

Dear Families and Friends of St. Joseph School,
“On November 1, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints, a time to pause and reflect on all those holy women and men who have come before us and live among us. We recognize that as People of God, we go to God together, praying for one another, learning from the example and wisdom of those who have lived the Gospel.” (crs.org)

“November 2 is the Commemoration of All of the Faithful Departed or All Souls. On this day, we pray that all those who have died—our loved ones, and those people around the world whom we will never meet—through the mercy of God, will rest in peace.” (crs.org)

The first quarter ended on October 24th. In-person parent/teacher conferences will be scheduled for the next Act 80 day, November 1st. Families and teachers must work together to ensure the success of our students. We must focus on giving our best as we begin the second quarter. Please join me in praying that all our students succeed throughout the next nine weeks of school.

Have a safe and blessed Thanksgiving.

God Bless,
Mrs. Ochs

Thank you, Lord, for autumn days, for grateful hearts, for psalms of praise. Thank you, Lord, for food to share, for family times of faith and prayer. Thank you,
Lord, for all these things, and every joy thanksgiving brings.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Pre-K 3 day

Preschool has been learning all about Community Helpers and how we can be kind and generous to the people in our neighborhoods. We have also been focusing on keeping ourselves healthy and active. By the end of November, we will have learned our letters up to J and our numbers through 8. Happy Thanksgiving!

1st Grade

First Grade will learn about how the Saints set examples for us to be good disciples of Jesus. We will make a list of all we have to be thankful for and prepare for the start of Advent by the end of the month. In math, we will extend our counting to 120 and begin to work with double digit numbers, and our real-world problems with both addition and subtraction with numbers up to 20. In reading, our stories will be a Dr. Seuss biography, a fantasy about Cupcakes, an informational text about Oceans, and a folktale about the Leopard's Spots

4th Grade

The 4th graders have started robotics! The majority of the groups are almost assembled and ready for programming! In math, the students will be starting the multiplication and division unit. They will learn how to multiply and divide multi-digit numbers by one digit numbers! We will be working on new strategies for solving real-world problems using these operations.

Pre-K 5 day

Preschool has been working hard this month! Our class has been learning the letters A-G, numbers 1-5, and many of our shapes. This month we will be learning the letters H-N, counting up to 5 objects, and more shapes. Our class also has a Block Student, Olivia Siegel, from PennWest Clarion that will be with us this month. We are excited to keep learning each day!

2nd Grade

This month, second grade will begin our map unit in social studies. We will be learning about different types of maps. In math, we will be starting our 3-digit subtraction chapter with and without regrouping. In science, we will be learning about how plants and animals live together. I hope everyone has a wonderful Thanksgiving!!

5th Grade

In Religion, we are learning more about the meaning of the Incarnation and our first and model disciple, Mary. In social studies, we are exploring the impact of people settling in a new place as the English colonized early America. In language arts, we are reading Quest for the Tree Kangaroo, an informational text about the endangered Matschie's tree kangaroo in the rain forests of Papua New Guinea.

Kindergarten

Kindergarten will learn about what Saints are and how they set examples for us to be good followers of Jesus. In math, we will continue naming shapes and the differences between flats and solids. We will then start to count beyond 20 all the way to 100! Our reading stories will take us through the year with Jump Into January and Snow and then we will explore animals with What Do You Do With A Tail Like This?

3rd Grade

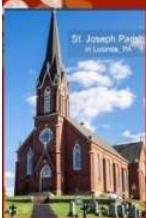

In Third grade, we are learning about how to write opinion writing pieces in language arts. In math, we are learning how to multiply. In Religion, we are learning about the gift of the Holy Spirit. We are learning about the water cycle in science, and about what makes a community unique in social studies.

6th Grade

In science, the students are identifying factors that affect the growth of plants; hydrotropism, thigmotropism, phototropism, and gravitropism. Our language arts lessons include alliteration, appositives with identifying concrete, abstract, and collective nouns.
